

AFRICAN AMERICAN LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE
“A New M.I.N.D: Moving In a New Direction”
September 10-13, 2009

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Greetings:

The 2009 African American Leadership Conference (AALC) Committee would like to invite you to attend and participate in our conference this year. The AALC originated in 1992 with the purpose of laying a foundation for educational success of incoming and returning African American students at Texas State University and abroad. This year's theme is “A New M.I.N.D: Moving In a New Direction.”

This year we are looking for well-rounded speakers who can bring a new dynamic to this event. We are asking you to cultivate your speaking talent to assist us in our quest for not just leadership, but other qualities and characteristics such as: self confidence, politics/current events, networking, financial planning, nutrition/health, etiquette, time management, and empowerment. These are only a few ideas and themes that we would like to take on this year in the 2009 African American Leadership Conference.

If you are interested in presenting a workshop, submit the following information by July 10, 2009:

- Workshop Proposal Form
- Abstract - include workshop title, presenter(s) name, workshop outline, & workshop description (Maximum of 150 words or less for the workshop description; for publication in program)
- Presenter(s) Biography

Before submitting your proposal, please be sure to read the attached Workshop Criteria and Guidelines. Workshop proposals must be submitted via e-mail to aalc@txstate.edu . If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Beverly Woodson Day at 512-245-7439 or bw13@txstate.edu or Temple Clark 512-245-2218 at tc21@txstate.edu.

Thank you for your time put forth to consider this request.

Sincerely,

Beverly Woodson Day
