CALL FOR PROPOSALS

Greetings:

The 2009 All Male Conference Committee members would like to invite you to attend and participate in our conference this year.

The mission of the All Male Conference is to inspire young males from all ethnic backgrounds and educational levels to reflect on their cultural past in order to foster leadership qualities that will provide social, economic, cultural and political development. The conference addresses issues that males face on college campuses and in their ordinary lives. The theme for this year's conference is "Creating a Legacy."

This year the conference is looking for well-rounded speakers who can bring a new perspective to participants. What we are asking of you is to cultivate your speaking talent and abilities to assist us in promoting leadership, self confidence, financial planning, nutrition and health, etiquette, time management, and empowerment. These are only a few of the ideas and themes that we would like to facilitate in this year's All Male Conference.

Enclosed is a Workshop Proposal Form. Once completed, submit to the Office of Multicultural Student Affairs at Texas State University-San Marcos, Attn: Jesse Silva via fax or mail.

If you are interested in presenting a workshop, submit the following information by October 1, 2009:

- Workshop Proposal Form
- Abstract – include workshop title, presenter(s) name, workshop outline, and workshop description (Description must be 150 words or less; for publication in program)
- Presenter(s) biography

Before submitting your proposal, please be sure to read the attached Workshop Criteria and Guidelines. The application deadline is Wednesday, October 15, 2009. After reviewing all proposals, we will inform you if your workshop has been accepted. Please provide a bio with your proposal.

Lastly, if you have any questions or concerns, please contact me at 512.245.2278 or at js202@txstate.edu.

Respectfully,

Jesse Silva
